

Medical Consultation Resources

Adoptive families who have been provided with a child proposal, medical, psychological or developmental reports should have medical information reviewed by specialists versed in international adoption medical reports and/or the long-term impacts of prenatal drug/alcohol exposure.

A good place to start is your family doctor.

The following is a sample of clinics and specialists available for consultation (most charge fees):

International reports:

- Dr. Jane Ellen Aronson - International Adoption Medical Consultation Services
Phone: (516) 663-9400 Voicemail: (516) 663-4417, 3727 Fax: (516) 739-6535
e-mail: orphandoc@aol.com
- Dr. Angelo Simone - The Canadian Clinic for Adopted Children – Mississauga
Tel: (905) 848-8303
Fax: (905) 848-5727
e-mail: docsimone@rogers.com
https://www.internationaladoptionhelp.com/international_adoption/international_adoption_medical_clinics.htm
- Dr. Dana Johnson - The International Adoption Clinic - Minneapolis MN
Phone: (612) 624-1164 or 624-1989
Fax: (612) 624-8176
e-mail: iac@umn.edu
www.adoption.umn.edu
- Center for Adoption Medicine
University of Washington's Pediatric Care Center
Adoptmed.org
Pre-adoption consultations, on-call travel support and pediatric care for fostered & adopted children. Providing pre-adoption consultations by telephone for families adopting from abroad or domestically.
- Connecting Kids With Care
Connecting Kids with Care is a free resource that enables organizations working with vulnerable populations to connect with volunteer licensed medical professionals in the U.S. All consultations are provided at no-charge and completed online over the internet. By leveraging telemedicine expertise and network of volunteer medical professionals, CKWC provides a valuable second opinion with treatment recommendations and advice for care.